RE: Gifts to Officials

AMENDED ADVISORY OPINION #142

SUMMARY

142. Effective August 1, 1994, officials attending meetings of the Minnesota Association of County Officers may not accept gifts in the form of payments that reduce the costs of the meetings from vendors that are lobbyists or lobbyist principals, pursuant to Minn. Stat. § 10A.071. The Association also should consider the application to such payments of Minn. Stat. § 471.895 (1994 Minn. Laws, ch. 377, sec. 6), a statute that is not within the jurisdiction of the Ethical Practices Board.

FACTS

As treasurer of the Minnesota Association of County Officers you ask the Ethical Practices Board for direction on the application of certain provisions of a 1994 law to the activities of your Association. You state that it is your understanding that after August 1, 1994, city, county, and state officials cannot receive benefits such as meals from paid lobbyists if the gift is over $5.00. You advise the Board that 1) many of Association meetings are held in the Twin Cities Area; and 2) some vendors contribute money in excess of $100 for group breakfasts or contribute towards the cost of a hospitality room, snacks, refreshments.

You ask the Board the following:

QUESTION

Will the Minnesota Association of County Officers be permitted to accept contributions from vendors after August 1, 1994?

OPINION

Pursuant to Minn. Stat. § 10A.071, which was effective August 1, 1994, officials are prohibited from accepting gifts from lobbyists or lobbyist principals, subject to certain exceptions defined in the statute. "Official" means a public official, an employee of the legislature, or a local official of a metropolitan governmental unit. Minn. Stat. § 10A.071, subd. 1(c). In turn, "public official" is defined by Minn. Stat. § 10A.01, subd. 18; "local official" is defined by Minn. Stat. § 10A.01, subd. 25; and "metropolitan governmental unit" is defined by Minn. Stat. § 10A.01, subd. 26. Copies of those statutory definitions are attached. As you will note from those definitions, it is likely that some of the members of the Minnesota Association of County Officers ("the Association") are local officials of metropolitan governmental units. Those officials are prohibited by Minn. Stat. § 10A.071, subd. 2, from accepting a gift from a lobbyist or lobbyist principal.

The term "gift" is broadly defined by Minn. Stat. § 10A.071, subd. 1(b), and includes money and all property, whether real or personal, that is given and received without the giver receiving consideration of equal or greater value in return. The only exception to the gift prohibition that relates to food or beverages is found in Minn. Stat. § 10A.071, subd. 3(a)(7), which excepts from the prohibitions of the statute "food or beverage given at a reception, meal, or meeting away from the recipient's place of work by an organization before whom the recipient appears to make a speech or answer questions as part of a program." That exception would not apply to the facts you have described. You also should note that there is no blanket exception in the statute for gifts of less than $5, as your statement of the facts assumes. The Board is aware that Minn. Stat. § 10A.04, subd. 4(c) requires lobbyists to report gifts equal in value to $5 or more to public or local officials. However, it is the Board's opinion that the only legal gifts to which that provision applies are gifts that fall within one of the statutory exceptions to the general prohibition.

It is the Board's opinion that Minn. Stat. § 10A.071 prohibits a vendor who is a lobbyist or a lobbyist principal from making payments to reduce the costs of the Association meetings you describe if officials--as defined by the statute--are in attendance, unless the officials reimburse the lobbyist or lobbyist principal vendor for the value of the benefit they receive.

However, the Association also should be aware of the existence of Minn. Stat. § 471.895 (1994 Minn. Laws, ch. 377, sec.6), a statute that is not within the Board's jurisdiction and with regard to which the Board may not issue advisory opinions. That statute, which also became effective on August 1, 1994, prohibits gifts by interested persons to local officials, and it likely has applicability to the Association activities you describe. A copy is attached for your reference.
