RE: Gifts to Officials

ADVISORY OPINION #172

SUMMARY

172. An official is prohibited from accepting a gift from a lobbyist principal without the giver receiving consideration of equal or greater value in return regardless of the conduit through which the official receives the benefit.

FACTS

As a public official as defined in Minn. Stat. § 10A.01, subd. 18, and, therefore, an official as defined in Minn. Stat. § 10A.071, subd. 1 (c), you ask the Ethical Practices Board for an advisory opinion based upon your statement of the following facts:

1. A seminar established as a bipartisan effort to educate and inform officials about significant public policy issues has been funded by donations from corporations headquartered or doing business in Minnesota, almost all of whom would be considered lobbyist principals within the confines of Minn. Stat. § 10A.071.
2. Donations from the sponsors cover the cost of speakers' honoraria, printing, equipment, transportation, facility rental, and food and beverages for noon meals.
3. Donations are paid to a governmental body and held in an independent account managed by the governmental body. Admission to the event for invited officials is free.

QUESTION

Are donations to a governmental body which are solicited by officials from a lobbyist or a lobbyist principal considered gifts to officials as defined in Minn. Stat. §10A.071 if the donations are used to conduct a public policy seminar?

OPINION

Yes. An official is prohibited from accepting a gift from a lobbyist principal without the giver receiving consideration of equal or greater value in return regardless of the conduit through which the official receives the benefit.
