THE FOLLOWING PUBLICATION DOES NOT IDENTIFY THE REQUESTER OF THE ADVISORY OPINION, WHICH IS NONPUBLIC DATA
under Minn. Stat. § 10A.02, subd. 12 (b) (1994 Minn. Laws, ch. 377, sec. 1)

RE: Gift to Official

ADVISORY OPINION #174

SUMMARY

174. An official is prohibited from accepting a gift from lobbyists and lobbyist principals in the form of payments to defray the costs of a conference that the official attends. Minn. Stat. § 10A.071.

FACTS

As a public official as defined in Minn. Stat. § 10A.01, subd. 18, and, therefore, an official as defined in Minn. Stat. § 10A.071, subd. 1 (c), you ask the Ethical Practices Board for an advisory opinion based upon your statement of the following facts:

1. The sponsors of a conference about issues of interest to your employer, a lobbyist principal, have asked you to attend the conference. Your traveling expenses and registration fee will be paid by the sponsors.
2. Among the sponsors are corporations who are also defined under the provisions of Minn. Stat. § 10A.071 as lobbyist principals.
3. A majority of the individuals who will be attending the conference will not be officials as defined in provisions of Minn. Stat. § 10A.071.

QUESTION ONE

Would the payment of your expenses by a lobbyist principal, other than your employer, to attend the conference be considered a gift to an official by a lobbyist principal under the provisions of Minn. Stat. § 10A.071 even though your presence at the conference is not connected with your duties as an official?

OPINION

Yes, if the sponsors, including lobbyists or lobbyist principals, pay your traveling expenses and registration fee. Minn. Stat. Ch. 10A does not prohibit you from participating in the conference you describe; however, the law restricts gifts from lobbyists and lobbyist principals to an official.

To the extent that any portion of the costs of the conference are paid by a lobbyist or a lobbyist principal, you are prohibited from accepting the gift. Donations from a lobbyist or lobbyist principal to pay in whole or in part for the cost of the conference are not within any exemption from the gift prohibition in Minn. Stat. § 10A.071.

QUESTION TWO

If the answer to Question One is yes, would your attendance at the conference be considered a gift to an official within the meaning of Minn. Stat. § 10A.071 if:

- A. You paid for any portion of your expenses to this event which may have been paid for by a lobbyist principal?
- B. Your employer, a lobbyist principal, paid for any portion of your expenses to this event which may have been paid for by a lobbyist principal?

OPINION

- A. No.
- B. A salary is not a gift under the statute. If you attendance at the conference is in conjunction with your employment, then payment of expenses is not a gift because as an employee you are giving your employer consideration of equal or greater value in return. Minn. Stat. § 10A.071, subd. 1(b).
