THE FOLLOWING PUBLICATION DOES NOT IDENTIFY THE REQUESTER OF THE ADVISORY OPINION, WHICH IS NONPUBLIC DATA
under Minn. Stat. § 10A.02, subd. 12 (b) (1994 Minn. Laws, ch. 377, sec. 1)

RE: Gifts to Officials

ADVISORY OPINION #175

SUMMARY

175. The acceptance by an official of a gift in the form of payments by a lobbyist or lobbyist principal to defray the costs of a conference is not within any exception to the gift prohibition in Minn. Stat. § 10A.071. An official is prohibited from accepting a gift from a lobbyist or a lobbyist principal without the giver receiving consideration of equal or greater value in return regardless of the conduit through which the official receives the benefit.

FACTS

As a public official as defined in Minn. Stat. § 10A.01, subd. 18, and, therefore, an official as defined in Minn. Stat. § 10A.071, subd. 1 (c), you ask the Ethical Practices Board for an advisory opinion based upon your statement of the following facts:

1. Costs of the annual meeting of a conference attended by a variety individuals representing governmental entities were paid from a combination of registration fees and corporate donations. Many of the registered attendees, such as guest speakers, host staff members and their spouses, were given complimentary registrations, thereby reducing the total number of paying registrants.
2. Corporate donations were used to provide the complimentary registrations and to reduce the amount of the fee for those who paid. Corporate sponsors included some national companies that lobby in Minnesota.
3. The Minnesota officials, as defined in Minn. Stat. § 10A.01, subd. 18, were less than a majority of the registrants attending the conference.

QUESTION

Do the registration fees paid by Minnesota officials to attend the conference fall within the exception in Minn. Stat. § 10A.071, subd. 3(b)(1), for a gift that is given because of the recipient's membership in a group, a majority of whose members are not officials, and an equivalent gift is given to the other members of the group?

OPINION

No. Based on the information presented in this request, the officials and the other individuals attended the conference and paid the registration fees as a matter of self selection rather than as members of a group for which membership requirements are specified. Consequently, the acceptance by an official of a gift in the form of payments by a lobbyist or lobbyist principal to defray the costs of a conference is prohibited. Minn. Stat. § 10A.071.
