RE: Tickets Sold to Officials

ADVISORY OPINION #178

SUMMARY

178. A lobbyist principal is prohibited from offering a service to officials, who are not season ticket holders, in the form of the opportunity to purchase tickets to an event operated by the lobbyist principal in advance of the sale of tickets to the general public. Minn. Stat. § 10A.071.

FACTS

As a registered lobbyist for an association that is a lobbyist principal, you ask the Ethical Practices Board for an advisory opinion based upon your statement of the following facts:

1. The association operates several annual events for which it offers tickets for sale to officials.
2. The price for the tickets offered to the officials is the same as the price paid by members of the general public.
3. The association's practice has been to send order blanks for the event to season ticket holders and to officials at the same time and to reserve a block of tickets for the event in anticipation of the advance sale to these individuals. After this advance sale is completed, the unsold tickets are released for sale to the public.

QUESTION

Is the advance sale of tickets to an event to officials by the association, a lobbyist principal, a gift from a lobbyist principal that is prohibited by Minn. Stat. § 10A.071?

OPINION

Yes. A lobbyist principal is prohibited from offering a service to officials, who are not season ticket holders, in the form of the opportunity to purchase tickets to an event operated by the lobbyist principal in advance of the sale of tickets to the general public. Minn. Stat. § 10A.071.
