RE: Issues Forum

ADVISORY OPINION #202

SUMMARY

202. The American Legislative Exchange Council's sponsorship and proposed operation of an issues forum that is available to the public is within the exceptions to the gift prohibition in Minn. Stat. § 10A.071, subd. 3 (a)(2) and (3). However, the American Legislative Exchange Council's disbursements in this endeavor may require disclosure under the lobbyist registration and reporting laws in Minnesota. Minn. Stat. § 10A.01, subd. 11; Minn. Rules pt. 4510.0100, subps. 4 and 5.

FACTS

As executive director of the American Legislative Exchange Council ("ALEC") you ask the Ethical Practices Board for an advisory opinion based on your statement of the following facts and information provided:

1. ALEC is a national bipartisan organization composed of members who are individual legislators from all 50 states and members who are corporations and other business associations from across the country.

2. ALEC's activities include the sponsoring of educational seminars throughout the country designed for legislators and other interested persons.

3. ALEC receives its operating funds in the form of dues and contributions from its members, some of whom are lobbyist principals as defined by Minn. Stat. § 10A.01, subd. 28.

4. ALEC does not now have a lobbyist registered in Minnesota and does not otherwise fall within the definition of lobbyist principal. ALEC recognizes that the issues forum described herein may constitute lobbying under Minnesota law and may thereby require that ALEC register a lobbyist with the Board, although the forum is not designed to influence any specific legislation.

5. ALEC proposes sponsoring an issues forum for which the target audience would be primarily members of the Minnesota legislature, but ALEC business members and other Minnesota businesses, and any interested person could attend.
6. Presentations at the forum would be designed to provide information to legislators or other officials to assist them in the performance of their official duties.

7. Persons could attend the forum at no cost; persons who choose to attend the dinner would pay a charge of $19, with advance or contemporaneous payment required. This charge equals the per-plate amount the event facility would be charging ALEC.

8. General operating funds of ALEC would cover the costs of the speakers’ expenses and honoraria, printing costs, facility rental, and other expenses not related to the dinner itself. Attenders would be given photocopied outlines for several of the presentations at the forum.

9. Agenda sheets and invitations that have been sent contain a statement that advice on this matter will be sought from the Ethical Practices Board. ALEC will notify persons that the event has been canceled if the Board finds that the program is a prohibited gift.

QUESTION ONE

Does ALEC’s sponsorship and operation of the issues forum require ALEC to register a lobbyist with the Board?

OPINION

Yes, in the event that the issues forum and any written materials distributed include information that communicates with or urges others to communicate with officials in attempts to advocate a particular position to an official about legislative or administrative action, or which requests initiation of any particular legislative or administrative action. If ALEC authorizes the expenditure of more than $250 for the costs of the issues forum, a lobbyist must register with the Ethical Practices Board to represent ALEC and report on ALEC’s disbursements for lobbying purposes in Minnesota. Minn. Stat. § 10A.01, subd. 11; Minn. Rules pt. 4510.0100, subps. 4 and 5.

QUESTION TWO

Does ALEC’s sponsorship and proposed operation of the issues forum as described in this request constitute a gift to officials that is prohibited by Minn. Stat. § 10A.071?

OPINION

No. The issues forum as described in this request is offered without charge to officials and any others who may wish to attend. Officials and others who choose to attend the dinner each would pay the amount that the facility would charge ALEC for the dinner. The operation of the issues forum is a gift that is within the exception from the gift prohibition for services to assist an official in the performance of official duties. Minn. Stat. § 10A.071, subd. 3 (a) (2).
QUESTION THREE

Is the distribution of photocopied outlines of the presentations at the issues forum to legislators, other officials, and other attenders at no charge prohibited by Minn. Stat. § 10A.071?

OPINION

No, provided that any photocopied materials that may be distributed to legislators or officials are within the exception for informational material of unexceptional value specified in Minn. Stat. § 10A.071, subd. 3 (a)(6).
