RE: Clients of Public Official

ADVISORY OPINION #213

SUMMARY

213. Individuals or associations who are lobbyists or lobbyist principals and who use commercial services at a public official's establishment and who pay no more than the prices charged to others are clients of the official's business.

FACTS

As a public official as defined in Minn. Stat. § 10A.01, subd. 18, and, therefore, an official as defined in Minn. Stat. § 10A.071, subd. 1 (c), you ask the Ethical Practices Board for an advisory opinion based upon your statement of the following facts:

1. You have operated a commercial service for many years.
2. During this time, and before you became a public official, you have had individuals, companies, and business groups who paid your prices for the services as they would at any other commercial operation.
3. You are receiving communication recently from some clients that they are not returning to your establishment because they are concerned that they may be perceived as somehow breaking the law prohibiting certain gifts to public officials, Minn. Stat. § 10A.071, subd. 1 (c).
4. Your response to the clients has been that your public service is part-time and that the commercial service you operate is your business and your livelihood.

QUESTION

Does Minn. Stat. § 10A.071 prohibit individuals or others with whom you are acquainted from continuing to come to your establishment and pay your current prices for service?

OPINION

No. The prohibition about gifts to officials in Minn. Stat. § 10A.071, subd. 1 (b), is against lobbyists and lobbyist principals. You are in the business of operating a commercial service. Consequently, individuals or associations who are lobbyists or lobbyist principals and who use services at your establishment and who pay no more than your current prices are clients of your business. In the transactions you describe no gift is given or received within the meaning of Minn. Stat. § 10A.071, subd. 1 (b).
