

STATE OF MINNESOTA
CAMPAIGN FINANCE AND PUBLIC DISCLOSURE BOARD

Findings and Order in the Matter of the Chris Coleman for St. Paul Committee

Summary of the Facts

Minnesota Statutes, Section 10A.27, subdivision 13(b), prohibits an association that is not registered with the Campaign Finance and Public Disclosure Board (“the Board”) from making a contribution in excess of $100 to a candidate, political party unit, or political committee that is registered with the Board unless, at the time the contribution was made, the unregistered association provides the recipient with disclosure of the unregistered association’s receipts and expenditures in the form specified by statute. An unregistered association that fails to provide the appropriate disclosure with the contribution is subject to a civil penalty of up to $1,000.

In the 2007 year-end Report of Receipts and Expenditures filed with the Board the 4th Congressional District DFL committee disclosed receipt of a $300 contribution from the Chris Coleman for St. Paul Committee (“the Coleman Committee”). Jo Matson, treasurer 4th Congressional District DFL, provided to the Board that the $300 was payment for a table at the 2007 Bruce Vento Fundraiser Dinner (“the Dinner”). By purchasing a table at the Dinner the Coleman Committee received tickets to the fundraiser that would have cost $200 if purchased separately, and advertising at the event valued at $100.

The Coleman Committee files campaign reports with Ramsey County. However, the Coleman Committee is not registered with the Board. The 4th Congressional District DFL did not receive appropriate disclosure at the time the Coleman Committee made the contribution for tickets to attend the Dinner.

In a letter dated April 10, 2008, Kris Fredson, treasurer for the Coleman Committee, responded to a Board inquiry into the matter stating “...it was my understanding that $200 of the $300 contribution made to the 4th District DFL by the Coleman for St. Paul campaign ...was going to pay for eight tickets to the Vento Dinner ...I was unaware of the rule that requires that meal contributions be identified as campaign contributions. I regret this inadvertent error.”

Board Analysis

Many candidates, political party units, and political committees rely on the sale of tickets to fundraiser dinners or other similar events to raise money to finance political activity. Purchasing a ticket to a fundraiser is a contribution to the organization holding the event. This is stated in the simplest terms by Minnesota Rules 4503.0500, subpart 1, which provides in part that “All receipts are contributions”. Therefore, the purchase of tickets to attend the 2007 Vento Fundraising Dinner was a $200 contribution to the 4th Congressional DFL.

Under the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, Section 10A.27, subdivision 13 (b), the Coleman Committee was required to provide a written statement that met the disclosure and reporting standards of Chapter 10A with the committee’s contribution to the 4th Congressional DFL. An unregistered association may provide a contribution of up to $100 without disclosure. Therefore, the amount of the $200 contribution that violated the statute was $100.

The $100 paid by the Coleman Committee for advertisement space and promotional acknowledgement at the Dinner is considered a general expenditure and not a contribution to the 4th Congressional District DFL.

A statute that considers a political committee that files disclosure reports with Ramsey County to be an “unregistered association” may seem arbitrary. However, the registration and reporting requirements for candidates in Ramsey County are significantly different than the provisions of Chapter 10A that the Board administers. In fact, the registration and reporting requirements for City of St. Paul candidates are not the same as candidates for Ramsey County offices. Without statutory authority, the Board must treat the political committees of candidates for local government as unregistered associations even when the committee files campaign reports with a county or municipality.

This matter was considered by the Board in executive session at its meeting on May 16, 2008. The Board’s decision was based upon correspondence from Mr. Fredson, Ms. Matson, and Board records.

Based on the above Summary of the Facts and the Relevant Statute, the Board makes the following:

Findings Concerning Probable Cause

1. There is probable cause to believe that the Chris Coleman for St. Paul Committee, an association that is not registered with the Board, violated Minnesota Statutes, section 10A.27, subdivision 13, when it made a contribution in excess of $100 to the 4th Congressional District DFL without providing the required disclosure.
2. There is no probable cause to believe that this violation was intentional or done with the intent to circumvent the requirements of Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 10A.

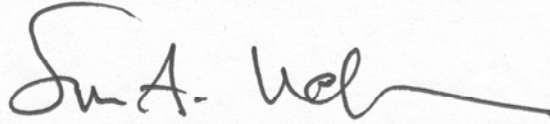

Based on the above Findings, the Board issues the following:

Order

1. The Board imposes a civil penalty of $100, one times the amount by which the contribution exceeded $100, on the Chris Coleman for St. Paul Committee for making a contribution in excess of $100 to political party unit without the disclosure required by Minnesota Statutes, section 10A.27, subdivision 13.
2. The Chris Coleman for St. Paul Committee is directed to forward to the Board payment of the civil penalty, by check or money order payable to the State of Minnesota, within 30 days of receipt of this order.
3. If the Chris Coleman for St. Paul Committee does not comply with the provisions of this order, the Board’s Executive Director may request that the Attorney General bring an action for the remedies available under Minnesota Statute, section 10A.34.

4. The Board investigation of this matter is hereby made a part of the public records of the Board pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, section 10A.02, subdivision 11, and upon payment by the civil penalty imposed herein, this matter is concluded.
