Minnesota Campaign Compliance and Public Discloser Board,

2010 $ 2011 HD 54A Twins Ticket Package (ticket, transportation, parking)

I believe there have been several violations of Minnesota Campaign Finance Laws.

I would like to start my inquiry from 2011 HD 54A Report of Receipts and Expenditures and the 2010 HD 54A Report of Receipts and Expenditures that were filed with the Minnesota Campaign Finance & Public Disclosure Board.

The first violation deals with not reporting the purchasing fifty (50) 2011 Twins vs. Orioles Tickets package in the 2011 HD 54A Report of Receipts and Expenditures Schedule B1 Expenditures

There are five Itemized Expenditures entered for a total of $1,215.08.

But there is no Itemized Expenditure entered listing the 50 2011 Twins Ticket package (ticket transportation and parking) I estimate conservatively the cost of the 50 Twins Tickets at $23 each (they were sold for $36) which comes to a total of $1,150 which would bring our Schedule B1 Expenditures to $2,365.08. This is based both on the location of the seats and cost $21 which were sold for $30 in 2010

But I am not finished with the Twins Ticket Package. I would like you to look at the two PDF that has Mike advertised utilizing Minnesota Coaches in providing transportation and parking to promote the selling of the Twins Tickets in both 2010 and 2011.

I believe there are Campaign Finance violation in both the 2010 & 2011 HD 54A Report of Receipts and Expenditures there should have been an entry for Minnesota Coaches either under Schedule B1 Expenditures or Schedule A1 Contributions Received. But there is noting listed anywhere in either the 2010 or 2011 Reports.

Depending on how the arrangement was made will determine if the amount is recorded as Schedule B1 Expenditures or Schedule A1 Contributions Received. I do not claim to be an expert. But my understanding of Minnesota Campaign Finance Law indicates this should be recorded.

I believe it should have been recorded in both the 2010 & 2011 HD 54A Report of Receipts and Expenditures under Schedule B1 Expenditures by HD 54A Treasurer Don Hewitt and HD 54A Deputy Treasurers Mike and Lisa were aware of this

Bob Murray
