General definitions

Administrative Action - An action by any public official, board, commission or agency of the executive branch to adopt, amend, or repeal a rule under Minn. Stat., ch. 14, as well as application of adopted rules in cases of rate setting, power plant and powerline siting, and granting of certificates of need under Minn. Stat., chap. 216B.243.

An administrative action pursuant to Minn. Stat., ch. 14, begins on publication of the notice required under Minn. Stat., section 14.101, subdivision 1, or at an earlier time when the official, board, commission or agency undertaking the rulemaking takes the first formal action required by law to begin the rulemaking process. An administrative action for a purpose other than rulemaking begins when the commission or agency undertaking the action takes the first formal action required by statute to begin the action or as otherwise defined by statute.

Due Date - Date by which reporting form must be delivered to the Board office or postmarked, to be considered timely filed.

Legislative Action - Any action by either house of the legislature, committee, or subcommittee with regard to any bill, resolution, amendment, nomination, appointment, or report. Includes gubernatorial approval or veto of any bill.

Local Official - A person who holds elective office in a political subdivision or who is appointed to or employed in a public position in a metropolitan governmental unit in which the person has authority to make, to recommend, or to vote on major decisions regarding the expenditure or investment of public money.

Metropolitan Governmental Unit - Any of the seven counties in the metropolitan area as defined in section 473.121, subd. 2; a regional railroad authority established by one or more of those counties under section 398.A.03; a city with a population of over 50,000 located in the seven-county metropolitan area; the metropolitan council, or a metropolitan agency as defined in section 473.121, subd. 5a.
