

STATE OF MINNESOTA
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS
FOR THE BOARD OF CAMPAIGN FINANCE

In the Matter of the Proposed Rules
Relating to Campaign Finance;
Lobbying; and Audits and Investigations

ORDER ON REVIEW OF DUAL NOTICE AND
ADDITIONAL NOTICE PLAN

This matter came on before Assistant Chief Administrative Law Judge Kristien R. E. Butler upon the request of the Minnesota Board of Campaign Finance (Board) for review and approval of its Dual Notice and Additional Notice Plan. Board seeks a legal review of its materials pursuant to Minn. R. 1400.2060 and .2080, subp. 5 (2023).

On September 24, 2024, Board filed documents with the Office of Administrative Hearings in support of the review and approval it seeks. Upon request of the Judge, Board supplemented its filing on September 30, 2024.

Under its Additional Notice Plan, Board plans to notify an expansive range of organizations, associations, and individuals likely to be impacted, or potentially impacted, by the proposed rules. Board also plans to notify multiple organizations, associations, and individuals who may have interest in the affected rules area. Board's efforts of notice are encompassing.

Based upon a review of the written submissions from Board, the Judge now hereby issues the following:

ORDER

Board's Dual Notice and Additional Notice Plan are APPROVED.

Dated: October 1, 2024
